

International Partnership-Building Session U.S. Department of State

Are you interested in partnering with other women's business centers in the Western Hemisphere to help the women-owned businesses you serve foster international business connections? Join us as we welcome representatives from organizations serving women-owned businesses in the Western Hemisphere, and explore ways to work together to connect the women-owned businesses you serve in the U.S. with those in other countries in the region.